An Activity of Trading in the Wheat Pit.

UNFASINESS AMONG THE SHORTS

In Increase in the Visible Supply-A Good Business in Corn at the Opening - Dullness in Oats.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKETS. CHICAGO, Sept. 23.- | Special Telegram to Tas Bes. ]-The wheat market continues trong and a ferther improvement in prices is noted as a result of the active day's trading in the wheat pit. The market is in a nervous state and fluctuation, in values were incessant. Apprehensions were felt in certain quarters of the manipulations in September, but it cannot be learned that there is a sound basis for such fear. The open interest in September is not generally believed to be important enough to wairant anybody in dunning the dealers, for attempting the manipulation. Gossip on that point stimulated business in this mouth's contracts, however, and there was just sufficient uneasiness felt among the shorts to run prices up sharply. For instance, September which closed Saturday at 7836c, opened this morning at 791/c advanced to 80c, sold off to 791/c, advanced again quickly to 801/4c with considerable business passing, and then after a reaction to 80% cocurred a rally to 80%c. The close was 80%c. There was also a livelier trade in October than has been witnessed in quite a while and several good-sized lines were changed over into December at a difference of le and 1@15c. The failure of receipts from the new winter wheat crop to improve in quality or come up to the hopes and expectations as to quantity has caused many of the more conservative among the bears to feel like going out of the near months. This feeling induced considerable buying in of December and selling of May. To such an extent was this changing of base indulged in that the difference between December and May was reduced from 35c to 3c, a shrinkage of 1/4c. December opened at 80c, advanced to 801/4@801/4c. sold off 703/4@80c and advanced rapidly and steadily to 80%c. Only one or two trades were made at that figure when free selling by Hutchinson and others broke the market back to 80%. The posting of the visible supply, showing an increase of 1,500,000 bushels, was a signal for another up movement. This time the advance did not stop until 81c was touched. The top was gained a fow minutes before 1 o'clock. Trade was active and on a large scale during the last half hour. A big battle was fought at 80½(280½)c early in the day and at 81c at the last. The closing quotation was 80½c. May opened with sales within a range of ½c or from 83½c to 83¾c. The demand was active at the outset but selling of the character described above caused some tears of manipulation as the outcome of small stocks of contract wheat were the features contributing to the advance to-day. There was a good business done in corn near the opening of the market, but prices were easier and orders from the outside were principally to sell. Buying appeared to come mainly from the shorts, there being nothing in the outlook presented by the developments early in the day to stimulate pur-chasing for investment. There are liberal offerings of No. 3 for the December delivery at this and outside points, which tends to de-press the market, being offered at from 21/4@ Sc under the present price. A decrease in the visible supply of 230,000 bushels gave some encouragement to buyers, and the advance in the price of wheat was also in their favor, and it was from those combined causes that the slight advance towards the close was chiefly due. The export movement is not active and outside markets all have a downward tendency. September, which opened at 31%c, sold off to 31%c and October from 31%c to 31%c and of the end both became much firmer and closed as follows: September 32 60, October 320, and May 33%c.

recession of values and the price got down to 83% c and subsequently to 83% c. On the last whirl the market was rushed up to 84 kc while the infract was reased up to 54,20. The final quotation was $4@$4/24, as compared with Saturday, the closing range marks a net gain of 14/2 in September, 3/20 in December and 3/20/240 in May. The strength of the foreign markets, threatened rough weather in the northwest, light receipts the world over, poor local inspection and groundless fears of manipulation as the outcome of small

Oaats were quiet and much of the time positively dull in the speculative market at prices averaging nearly steady. With large posted receipts and small withdrawals for shipment together with the prevailing weakness in corn the tendency was one of easiness but any downturn of consequence was pre-yented by the steady bidding of 22% for May on the part of a prominent operator. That month barely touched 22½c with light trading at 22½c@22¼c. Near months were dull and firm, early, under the lack of offerings, ruling tame and easier later. No. 2 white for October sold at 21½c, and for May 21½c was bid with sellers for 24½c. No. 2 oats to go to store sold sparingly at 1014c.

In provisions the week opened with no recovery from the quietude lately existing. recovery from the quieting lately existing.
In all branches of trade rather a slow condition of trade prevailed. Outside orders of all descriptions were insignificant, and among professional traders there was a decided indisposition to take sides. The little business transacted was wanting in feature and failed to furnish a single point worthy of a passing notice. Still the feeling was quite strong and in several instances prices vere advanced over Saturday's closings. provement of 71/2c, in September short ribs of 15c, in October short ribs of 71/3c, in January pork of 5c, and in January short ribs

Best export steers and best mediums soid rather quick and fully up to the close of last week." Plain and common natives ruled slow, and generally sold somewhat lower than at the close on Friday, but about everything was disposed of, and one lot of gilt edge export steers made $4.80. A big wun of Texans, and the number in sight for the next two days brought about a reduction of 10@15c, as compared with the close on Friday. Common grades of native butchers' stock was also generally reported lower, following the down turn on Texans. Range steers ruled steady with little or no business in the stocker and feeder line. NEW YORK, Sept. 23 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-STOCKS-It was apparent this morning that there must be new influences in stocks before there will be a revival of business. The gossip from Saturday to the opening to-day was abundant, but not productive of any decided tendency in values. The bulls have enormous earnings to point to even with the cutting of rates in progress. The leaders concede that the bears may meet with some such for a few days on account of the uneasy feeling over dear money, but the action will then be strongly upward. Points are out on Eric as the London favorite and Jay Gould's specialties Western Union and Shipments, 300; market steady; fair to Missouri Pacific. The taking of Grangers by N. S. Jones and Stayback is very encouraging. The opening of the market today was not significant in any way. Chicago was buying quite freely, with London doing but little. On the whole the feeling was strong. With the exception of Louisville & Nashville and St. Paul there was no animation anywhere in the list. Jersey Central showed an advance of % per cent and rose small fractions further, but the feature of the trading was Louisville & Nashville, which developed marked activity and strength and quickly advanced to 7814, a gain of % per cent. Later, however, it retired to 78, and the general list also shaded off slightly from the opening prices. Tennessee coal and Norfolk & Western preferred also rose fractionally, but neither held all of the advance. Before noon, however, there was another upturn throughout the list, Louisville went to 78%, Manitoba to 112 and Northern Pacific preferred, to 74%, with a generally improved feeling in Grangers and coal stocks. Sugar trusts sold at 104 to 102 and regained slightly. The market was quite irregular late in the day. The interest continued in Louisville, which was brought up to 79% and closed at 79, with a pet gain of 1% per cent. Jersey Central climbed to 123. Northern Pacific common and preferred each closed 34 higher. Nearly all of the remainder of the list showed a weakness, and no losses extended from 1/4 to 1/4 per cent. The Granger group was steady for Burlington and St. Paul and W lower for Northwestern. The total sales for the day were 154,451 shares. The following were the closing quotations

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle Monday, Sept. 23.

To-day's trading in cattle did not present any essentially new features, the general market being about steady. Over three-fourths of all the cattle here were westerns and Texans, but there were a few good confed beeves. The quality of the westerns was fed beeves. The quality of the westerns was not very good, and a large proportion of them were not good enough for anything but feeders. The corn-fed steers went at $3.85@ 4.25, and quite a string of Colorado-Texans went at $2.45. Cow stuff was not very plenty, and prices fully steady. A bunch of fancy spayed heifers which were finer than a great many of the corn-fed steers coming here, sold at $3.40. The native cows sold here, sold at $3.40. The native cows sold principally at $1.25@2.25, while quite a number of westerns brought $2.00@2.10. There were plenty of feeders on sale and about the usual Monday's demand. The market was really devoid of any new features. Some vesterns and Texans sold at $2,25@2.60.

Hogs. Hogs.

The bog market was also about steady. The packers started out bidding as much 10c lower on heavy hogs, but they did not succeed in getting them that way. The shippers put in an appearance with liberal orders and the packers were forced to raise their bids almost immediately. The heavy weights sold mostly at $3.75@3.80. There was no sorting up of light hogs and consequently the sales look lower, the top being only $3.95 as against $4.02½ on Saturday. There was not enough light here to do anything with and the loads were all sold mixed.

Sheep. The receipts of sheep were very heavy, but they were nearly all feeders consigned to eastern points.

Receipts. The following is a table of prices paid in this market for the grades of stock mentioned: Prime steers, 1300 to 1600 lbs. $4.00 @4.35 Good steers, 1250 to 1450 lbs., 3.75 @4.10 Good steers, 1050 to 1300 lbs., 3.25 @3.90

Fair to choice light hogs. . . . 3.90 (#4.00)
